

Out-of-State Property Owners in Eagan, Shakopee, and New Prague Are Selling Fast to Avoid Long-Distance Headaches

Rising taxes, repairs, and management issues push absentee owners to take cash offers and move on Minneapolis, Minnesota Oct 5, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - As inflation impacts utility bills, maintenance costs, and insurance premiums, more out-of-state homeowners with property in Eagan, Shakopee, and New Prague are offloading their homes to local cash buyers. Managing a vacant home or rental from another state has become a financial and logistical burden—and many owners are now choosing speed and certainty over long-distance stress.

“We’re working with more absentee owners than ever before,” said a spokesperson for Sell House Fast MN. “Some inherited a property. Others moved years ago and kept it as a rental. But now they’re tired of maintenance calls, city violations, and unreliable tenants. They just want out.”

Why Absentee Owners Are Selling Now

With property taxes up across Scott and Dakota Counties, and interest rates still high, many long-distance owners are watching their equity shrink month after month. In New Prague, one out-of-state seller recently contacted Sell House Fast MN after a plumbing leak went undetected for weeks. In Eagan, another owner was cited for code violations and high grass—while living 800 miles away.

“We buy houses Shakopee for people who haven’t seen the inside of the home in five years,” the rep said. “They’re still paying insurance, taxes, and utilities—and the house just keeps deteriorating. We help them cash out and move on.”

Top Problems for Out-of-State Owners:

- Tenants not paying rent
- Deferred maintenance and rising repair costs
- Inherited homes sitting vacant
- Property management fees cutting into profits
- Legal risks tied to long-distance ownership
