

Pet Damage and Odor Issues Are Leading Homeowners in Burnsville, Shakopee, and Rosemount to Sell As-Is for Cash

Minnesota sellers are offloading homes affected by animals, smoke, or biohazards—skipping repairs and agents

Minneapolis, Minnesota Oct 26, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - From lingering pet odors to hoarding conditions and past water damage, a growing number of Minnesota homeowners are choosing to sell their properties as-is rather than tackle costly cleanup projects. In cities like Burnsville, Shakopee, and Rosemount, homes with damage from animals, mold, or smoke often fail to sell through traditional channels—leading many sellers to turn to local cash buyers instead.

“These situations are more common than people think,” said a spokesperson for Sell House Fast MN. “We buy houses Burnsville that have deep carpet damage, cat urine odors, or even animal infestations. These homes won’t pass inspection and can’t go FHA. Sellers come to us because they’re out of options.”

The Hidden Cost of Pet and Odor-Related Repairs

Homes with pet damage or biohazard cleanup needs often require:

- Full carpet and pad replacement

- Subfloor remediation
- Drywall removal and sealing
- Ozone treatment or thermal fogging
- Mold abatement and plumbing fixes

“We recently bought a property in Shakopee that had been rented out for years and was never cleaned properly,” said the rep. “The owner was facing thousands in cleanup fees and decided to sell house fast Shakopee style instead—no repairs, no agents, just a clean break.”

When a Traditional Sale Isn't Realistic

Buyers in today's market expect move-in ready. Homes in Rosemount or Burnsville with lingering odors or pet damage are likely to get passed over—no matter the price.

“If a home smells like dogs or smoke, buyers walk,” said the spokesperson. “You can drop the price, but even then, the financing won't go through without repairs. That's where we step in.”

Sell House Fast MN Buys Homes in Any Condition

Whether it's biohazard cleanup, hoarding situations, smoke damage, or pest issues, the company offers fast, as-is cash offers with no inspections or contingencies.

“We don't care if it smells like pets or if the ceiling has water stains,” said the rep. “We make fair offers and help people move on—no judgment, no delays.”
