

Recertified Teenager Tells an Ode to Mother with Latest Song 'Mama Said' feat. Ruby

Let's celebrate the love and blessings of a mother with the Recertified Teenager's brand-new musical creation, 'Mama Said,' where he collaborated with little Ruby.

London, Sep 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - KP-McBen, better known as the Recertified Teenager, brings a brand new song in collaboration with young prodigy, Ruby. The track is called 'Mama Said' and it brings back memories of one's mother for people who have lost theirs. It is a beautiful and melodic song with a catchy singing style that can easily captivate the fans. The lyrical approach in the track is quite poetic and emotional, and capable of reminding listeners of their mothers, the closest and most lovable person in their lives. The song is dedicated to the efforts of all good mothers around the world.

The song 'Mama Said' is featured by Ruby, a young prodigy who started singing at a tender age, and now, she is growing to become a seasoned artist. The song has also been released with an official music video, which can be found on KP-McBen's official YouTube page. The most attractive feature of this song could be its lyrics, which paint pictures of the best memories of mothers. Just like the title suggests, the song tells about the hard truth shared about mothers. It often happens that people feel like their mothers are nagging all the time until they start to realize the hard truth of life, which has been shared by most mothers with their kids. It is a deeply emotional track that can move the listeners' hearts. KP-McBen lyrically puts forward serious life enriching matters in a humorous, magical and subtle manner a trademark of his music. The subject matter of his songs are quite educational and thought-provoking. Watch out for his next song titled "Father Father Father"
