

Singer songwriter CaptC To Perform at Ramshackle Fest

Monson, Massachusetts Sep 22, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Indie songwriter and Flannel Country Artist CaptC will be performing at the Ramshackle Music Festival. He'll be joining several popular western Massachusetts bands and solo acts at the festival hosted by the band Ramshackle. The festival—one of the premier autumn music events in western Massachusetts—will be held Sunday Sept 28 rain or shine, at Pulaski Park at 40 Belchertown Road in Three Rivers from noon to 8 p.m.

The festival organizer, Ramshackle, is a popular band in Massachusetts. Bands joining Ramshackle in playing at the festival are Shawn Crimmins Band, The Project, Dave & the Blueberries, The Loose Knit Wits, and Muzzle. Solo acts, including CaptC, will play between band performances.

CaptC describes his style of Americana music as “Flannel Country”—a blend of roots, folk rock, and modern country. His songs feature colorful stories and characters, ear-catching melodies, and picturesque and often humorous lyrics, offering wry takes on romance and modern life.

His songs can be found on all major music streaming platforms such as Spotify and Apple Music, as well as on Youtube and TikTok. His most recent single was the summer song “Chasing Fireflies.”

For more on CaptC's music, videos, and show dates, visit:

www.captcmusic.com

Media Contact

James Cooke

@gmail.com

Source : Flannel Country Artist CaptC

See on IssueWire