

SixCentz Records returns to dominate the New York music scene

SixCentz Records Makes a Triumphant Return with Two Major Artist Signings and Upcoming Album Releases

New York City, New York Sep 16, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - SixCentz Records, the powerhouse independent label known for breaking boundaries in pop, dance, and R&B music, proudly announces its official return to the music scene with the signing of two dynamic new artists: Javiel Arenzo and Novira Lunara. Both artists are set to release highly anticipated projects later this year, marking a bold new era for the label.

SixCentz Records has built an undeniable legacy as one of the most impactful independent labels of the last decade, boasting six Top 10 iTunes hits across multiple genres and amassing millions of streams worldwide.

Known for its innovative approach to artist development and champions “Hybrid Music”—a dynamic blend of Hip-Hop, Pop, R&B, and Dance that pulses with energy. These tracks have found resonance on FM radio and streaming platforms alike, captivating listeners across the nation across a wide age spectrum.

The first of the two new releases will be Javiel Arenzo's debut album, Dark Fantasy, an immersive project blending hypnotic beats, raw lyricism, and emotional storytelling. The album promises to push the boundaries of pop and dance while offering fans a dark, cinematic experience.

Following closely is Novira Lunara's groundbreaking project, B.Y.S.M.T., a genre-defying collection of tracks that combine dance-floor energy with introspective themes. Known for her powerful voice and artistic vision, Novira's debut is expected to cement her as one of the most exciting new voices in music today.

"We've always believed in finding artists who bring something unique to the table," said Andre Faria, CEO of SixCentz Records. "Javiel and Novira are true visionaries, and their projects represent exactly what SixCentz stands for – originality, passion, and a connection with fans worldwide. Dark Fantasy and B.Y.S.M.T. are just the beginning of this next chapter for us."

Both albums are slated for release later in 2025, with singles dropping in the coming months. Fans can expect innovative visuals, live performances, and collaborative projects that will continue to elevate SixCentz's reputation as a leader in independent music culture.
