

Stephanie Phan, PsyD, Expands Neuropsychological Practice to Las Vegas, Nevada

Offering Holistic and Collaborative Mental Health Services for the Community

Las Vegas, Nevada Sep 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Stephanie Phan, PsyD, a licensed clinical psychologist and neuropsychologist, has recently relocated from Aiea, Hawaii, to Las Vegas, Nevada, where she is excited to expand her practice and continue her mission of providing comprehensive mental health care. As the Chief Operating Officer of My Integrative Care and Founder of the Kintsugi Center for Healing, LLC, Dr. Phan specializes in neuropsychological evaluations, individual psychotherapy, and integrative mental health services.

With extensive clinical expertise in treating a variety of issues, including anxiety, depression, trauma, life transitions, chronic pain, and cognitive disorders, Dr. Phan takes a unique, collaborative approach to therapy. Her therapeutic style is holistic and grounded in evidence-based practices, ensuring that each patient receives personalized care tailored to their unique experiences and needs. "Each person and their story is unique, and therefore, the approach to therapy should reflect that," Dr. Phan notes.

She offers a range of services, including comprehensive neuropsychological and psychological evaluations, as well as bariatric evaluations. Dr. Phan emphasizes that addressing mental health concerns not only enhances individual well-being but also strengthens relationships and improves overall quality of life.

Her journey into the field of neuropsychology is deeply personal. Inspired by her father's traumatic brain injury and the challenges he faced during his recovery, Dr. Phan is dedicated to helping others who confront similar obstacles. She is also passionate about increasing cultural representation in neuropsychology, working to bridge gaps for underrepresented communities, including her own.

Dr. Phan's academic credentials include an Undergraduate Degree from San José State University and a Doctor of Psychology Degree from John F. Kennedy University. Her professional training includes an internship at John Peter Smith Hospital and a specialized fellowship in neuropsychology at Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital and Trauma Center. These experiences have enhanced her expertise in brain injury, cognitive rehabilitation, and trauma-informed care.

In addition to her clinical practice, Dr. Phan has served as an adjunct professor at Chaminade University of Honolulu, mentoring students and future clinicians while contributing to the next generation of mental health professionals.

As she establishes her new practice in Las Vegas, Dr. Stephanie Phan looks forward to making a positive impact in the community by providing high-quality, integrative mental health services.
