Susanne Rhow Joins Brown Harris Stevens as a Leading Real Estate Broker in New York City

New York City, New York Sep 29, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Susanne Rhow, an accomplished real estate broker, has joined Brown Harris Stevens, where she brings her exceptional expertise in representing buyers, sellers, and investors within the Manhattan market. Known for her professionalism and commitment to client satisfaction, Rhow excels in navigating multi-million-dollar transactions across various neighborhoods, including the East Side, West Side, and downtown areas. Her extensive experience encompasses a wide range of properties, from cooperative sales and new developments to townhouses and intricate 1031 exchanges.

Rhow's clients appreciate her ability to attentively listen and accurately assess their unique goals, which allows her to provide insightful, data-driven guidance throughout every stage of the real estate process. Her meticulous preparation ensures that she previews each property before introducing it to clients, maximizing efficiency and safeguarding their interests. In scenarios where competitive offers arise, Rhow employs her strong negotiation skills, complemented by a keen eye for detail, enabling her to craft compelling offers that resonate with sellers.

In addition to her real estate acumen, Rhow's background in international business enhances her approach to luxury transactions. She has held senior leadership positions with prestigious organizations such as Saks Fifth Avenue, Estée Lauder International, and Sotheby's Auction House in key cities including New York, San Francisco, and Hong Kong. Her tenure as Vice President at Sotheby's Trusts and Estates and Private Client Group allowed her to collaborate with high-net-worth individuals, estate attorneys, and wealth managers, equipping her with invaluable insights that she leverages in estate sales and luxury real estate dealings.

Rhow's educational credentials further bolster her expertise; she is a proud graduate of Stuyvesant High School and Georgetown University, with additional studies at La Sorbonne in Paris and Sotheby's Institute of Art in London. This combination of academic rigor and global perspective allows her to serve her clients with unparalleled insight and dedication.

As Susanne Rhow embarks on this new chapter with Brown Harris Stevens, she remains committed to providing her clients with the highest level of service, ensuring that their real estate experiences are seamless, informed, and successful.
