

The Greatest Spectacle Of Lucha Libre Returns To London For A 'day Of The Dead' Spectacular

An alternative Halloween experience The last chance to see El Hijo del Santo, one of Mexico's greatest wrestlers Celebrate 'Dia de Muertos' with some of Mexico' masked superheroes

About Lucha Libre

For nearly a century, Lucha Libre has captivated fans in Mexico with its unique mix of athleticism, artistry, and cultural storytelling. The luchadores, instantly recognisable by their colourful masks, are more than athletes – they are living folk heroes, performing spectacular aerial manoeuvres while embodying myth, drama and tradition.

Since the 1990s, Lucha Libre has influenced mainstream wrestling worldwide, with stars like Rey Mysterio bringing its thrilling style to global audiences.
