

Andrea Renee Hannon, RN, Elevates Patient Care as Care Coordinator at Carehub Inc.

Seasoned Registered Nurse Combines 26 Years of Healthcare Experience with Compassionate Care in a Dynamic Healthcare Environment

Plainfield, Illinois Oct 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Graduating with her Associate of Science in Registered Nursing from Joliet Junior College, Andrea Renee Hannon, RN, possesses over 26 years of practical experience across various healthcare settings, including home health management and leadership, trauma, and emergency care.

In her current role as an RN Care Coordinator at Carehub Inc., Andrea specializes in organizing comprehensive patient care and treatment plans by incorporating all members in the care team with a focus on patients with specific diagnoses such as diabetes, asthma, heart failure, etc. By facilitating care coordination, she plays a pivotal role in preventing fragmented healthcare, ensuring that patients transition smoothly between different areas of their care.

In today's complicated healthcare landscape, patients often feel overwhelmed and unsure of how to navigate their treatment options. At Carehub Inc., the goal is to improve patient care outcomes, enhance access to services, reduce healthcare costs while preventing hospital readmissions, promote continuity of care, and educate both patients and their families throughout the process.

The comprehensive approach at Carehub Inc. includes developing personalized care plans that engage an entire interdisciplinary team, overseeing daily program management, and continuously evaluating patient progress. This ensures that quality, safety, and patient privacy remain paramount, while also serving as a crucial liaison between the healthcare team and the patient.

Andrea's philosophy centers on treating each patient as a unique individual deserving of dignity, respect, and compassion. Her patient-centered approach has not only guided her nursing practice but has also allowed her to make a profound difference in the lives of those she serves. "Putting my patients first is what inspires my dedication to nursing every single day," she asserts.

As healthcare continues to evolve, Andrea Renee Hannon stands out as a model of excellence in nursing, demonstrating that with the right blend of experience, empathy, and teamwork, healthcare can be a more supportive and effective experience for everyone involved.
