

Asma Iftikhar, MD, FCCP: Leading Pulmonary and Critical Care Across the North Shore

Bringing Expert, Patient-Centered Pulmonary Medicine and Life-Saving ICU Care to Port Jefferson and Beyond

Port Jefferson, New York Oct 8, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Northwell Health proudly announces the esteemed addition of Asma Iftikhar, MD, FCCP, to its Mather Medical Group – Pulmonary and Sleep Medicine. With over 20 years of extensive medical experience, Dr. Iftikhar is a board-certified physician specializing in pulmonary medicine and critical care. Her commitment to providing exceptional outpatient pulmonary and sleep-related services is complemented by her practice at Northwell Health Physician Partners Harbor View Medical Services Pulmonary and Sleep Medicine at Port Jefferson.

Dr. Iftikhar is dedicated to advancing the field of pulmonary medicine and critical care, currently serving as an intensivist at Mather Hospital. Here, she delivers advanced care for patients suffering from a variety of pulmonary diseases, ensuring they receive comprehensive, patient-centered treatment. In addition to her practice at Mather, Dr. Iftikhar maintains affiliations with several prestigious institutions, including Glen Cove Hospital, Long Island Jewish Medical Center, and North Shore University Hospital, further solidifying her role as a leading physician in the region.

Education is another passion for Dr. Iftikhar, who serves as an Assistant Professor at the Donald and Barbara Zucker School of Medicine at Hofstra/Northwell. In this role, she plays a crucial part in shaping the next generation of physicians, imparting her knowledge and experience to future healthcare leaders.

Dr. Iftikhar's medical journey began at Rajshahi Medical College, where she completed her medical education, followed by internships and residencies at Rajshahi Medical College Hospital and Long Island Jewish Forest Hills. She further honed her skills through a research fellowship at North Shore University Hospital and a fellowship in pulmonary and critical care medicine at NewYork-Presbyterian/Queens.

Her impressive credentials include multiple board certifications in Internal Medicine, Pulmonary Disease, and Critical Care Medicine through the American Board of Internal Medicine. Dr. Iftikhar is an active member of the American Thoracic Society and the Society of Critical Care Medicine, and she is honored to be a Fellow of the American College of Chest Physicians.

With her comprehensive training and unwavering dedication to patient care, Dr. Iftikhar is well-equipped to address complex respiratory and critical care needs, serving diverse patient populations in Port Jefferson and beyond.
