

BA Alan Steuart Unleashes a Genre-Bending Musical Reckoning on October 12

Houston, Texas Oct 8, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - On October 12, 2025, BA Alan Steuart will release a powerful suite of new songs as a song writer that span alternative, country, blues, and rock—each track a visceral reflection of identity, time, love, and legacy.

The release includes:

- “I Am More” – A stirring alternative anthem celebrating the empowerment of women. With raw emotion and lyrical defiance, Steuart crafts a sonic tribute to resilience and self-worth.
- “No More Laters” – A haunting blend of alternative and blues, this track confronts the fleeting nature of time. It’s a reminder that life doesn’t wait—and neither should we.
- “Something Worth Dying For” – A country-rock-alternative fusion that salutes God, Family, and Country. With the rallying cry “We live for nothing and we die for something,” Steuart channels the spirit of the Red, White, and Blue into a track that’s both patriotic and deeply personal.
- “Rise and Rise Again” – Released under Red Hand Records and HorsesGhost Band, this single is a tribute to Charlie Kirk. With themes of God, Faith, Family, and Country, the song draws on the powerful imagery of lambs becoming lions. It’s a rallying cry for conviction and courage in uncertain times.
- “Holding On By A Thread” - Each and every day, we all have trials and tribulations that we experience in life. Through our faith and the grace of God, we hold on, endure, and power through. Holding on by a Thread is a fusion of blues, soul, and Christian rock.
- “Stand In The Fire” - A riveting, inspirational, and motivational blend of new age alternative blues-soul-rock with a powerful message.
- “Greater Purpose” - Released as a message to all that no matter the path you have walked in life, God has a Greater Purpose for us all. This song was written because of the haunting life experiences that Steuart himself has endured, but also for several of his close friends who have served. PTSD comes from many things, but we must remember, we all have a Greater Purpose.
- “Get Busy Livin” - The power behind this message is that we all have a choice. Either get busy living or get busy dying. This is a blend of soul-alternative-gospel. It is very upbeat and up-tempo. A very motivational and inspirational song.
- “Iron Sharpens Iron” - An excerpt from Proverbs 27:17 Iron Sharpens Iron, as one brother and one sister sharpen another. A moving alternative-soulful-gospel song. The song lets you know we are not alone, and we all have to lift each other up.
- “No Day Is Given Today Is Mine” - It is our choice every day on how we live our lives, but each is mine. We can fill it with joy or self-pity. A powerful blend of alternative-soul-gospel.

Each song is a standalone statement, yet together they form a cohesive narrative—one that explores what it means to fight, to love, to believe, and to belong. With each of the vocals coming across as commanding, his lyrics unapologetically honest, and the sound unmistakably his own.
