John Campbell-Mac Expands into Film Noir, Crime & Sports Drama Roles

Los Angeles, California Oct 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - British actor John Campbell-Mac continues to make waves following his performance in Cardi B's music video "Safe", which has now exceeded 15 million views in just three weeks. The track is part of Cardi B's platinum-certified album Am I the Drama?, which achieved RIAA certification on release day.

In Safe, Campbell-Mac portrays a silent yet pivotal antagonist, the gunman whose confrontation with Cardi anchors the video's dramatic tension. With the video's performance escalating across platforms, his visage has become one of the most talked-about elements, drawing attention from casting agents, press, and fans alike.

Beyond "Safe", Campbell-Mac is wrapping principal photography on the film-noir thriller "Expense of Death", in which he plays a morally ambiguous lawyer immersed in the murky undercurrents of crime and corruption. Earlier this year, he starred as a Russian gangster in "Jungle Juice 2", currently streaming on Tubi. He is also preparing to portray a college basketball coach in the upcoming independent feature "A Christmas Miracle", slated to shoot in December.

A BAFTA-nominated film maker and actor (for Winner Takes All), Campbell-Mac is building a filmography that traverses genres—crime, thriller, drama, comedy and now sports character work. With strong roots in theatre and an instinct for character complexity, he brings intensity, vulnerability, and range to each role.
