A Boutique Born from Passion and Elegance

Estell Boutique began as a passion project nestled in the heart of Santa Monica—where the sun, sea, and effortless style inspired the curation of quality Italian women's clothing and European designer apparel celebrating modern femininity. What started as a single boutique quickly became a local gem for women seeking timeless pieces with a touch of European sophistication. Whether it is Italian craft and tailoring, Greek artistry, Spanish flair, or Turkish influences from the south of Europe, Estell brings women unique sensibilities where fashion recognizes its heritage.

Thanks to the love and support of our customers, Estell has now launched its newest location in Manhattan Beach, bringing the same attention to detail, curated elegance, and personal styling expertise that made the Santa Monica shop a favorite. Serving two vibrant Southern California communities, Estell Boutique remains committed to helping every woman feel confident, chic, and beautifully herself—whether strolling along Montana Ave. or soaking up the coastal charm of Manhattan Ave.
