

Crino.io Launches to Redefine How Founders Find and Manage Investors

Start connecting smarter today at CRINO

Bay Point, California Oct 6, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Crino.io, a new SaaS platform built for founders, startups, and dealmakers. With instant access to over 100,000 verified investor profiles, their past deals, and an integrated CRM, Crino.io empowers users to research, connect, and manage investor relationships — all in one place.

In an environment where speed and precision define fundraising success, crino delivers both. The platform combines investor intelligence with streamlined workflow tools that let founders discover the right investors, analyze their investment patterns, and track every conversation from first contact to deal close.

“We built Crino.io because founders shouldn’t waste weeks searching spreadsheets and LinkedIn threads just to find relevant investors,” said Anton, Founder of Crino.io. “Our platform brings clarity and control to one of the hardest parts of building a company — fundraising.”

Crino.io’s integrated CRM ensures that no lead or opportunity is lost. Users can log interactions, monitor responses, and make data-driven outreach decisions — all from a single intuitive dashboard.

Whether you’re raising your first round or scaling your next fund, Crino.io turns investor research into an actionable, trackable process.
