Daniel Pérez: A Leader in Senior Living Community Development

Scottsdale, Arizona Oct 10, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Daniel G. Pérez, MBA, a distinguished figure in the architecture and real estate development sectors, continues to make significant strides in the design and delivery of senior living communities. As Managing Principal and Partner at Perez McGee International Architecture and Vice President of Real Estate Development and Construction at Senior Resource Group, Mr. Pérez is redefining the standards for communities catering to adults aged 65 and older.

With over two decades of experience, Mr. Pérez brings a wealth of expertise that spans multiple sectors, including healthcare, higher education, hospitality, aviation, and mixed-use developments on both national and global stages. His current focus on senior living uniquely combines architectural innovation with effective real estate strategies, fostering environments that are not only functional but also sustainable for aging populations.

At Perez McGee International Architecture, headquartered in Scottsdale with additional offices in Medellín and the Bajío region of Mexico, Mr. Pérez leads a multidisciplinary practice that seamlessly integrates architectural design, planning, entitlement processes, and sustainability initiatives. The firm utilizes cutting-edge technology and innovative approaches to meet the evolving demands of modern development, ensuring that each project is tailored to the specific needs of its market.

In his role at Senior Resource Group, Mr. Pérez is responsible for overseeing the real estate development and construction division, managing capital expenditures, acquisitions, expansions, and renovations across the firm's national portfolio. His comprehensive oversight from entitlement through to project completion ensures that each initiative is executed with precision and efficiency. By collaborating closely with architects, planners, contractors, and government officials, he guarantees that the delivery of each project aligns with both architectural excellence and long-term community goals.

Mr. Pérez credits his success to his honed architectural skills, a deep commitment to his family and team, and a unique ability to actualize the visions of others into vibrant, sustainable realities. His dedication to advancing the field of senior living not only enhances the quality of life for residents but also sets new benchmarks for the industry.

As he continues to lead innovative projects that strengthen communities, Daniel G. Pérez remains a pivotal figure in the evolution of senior living, showcasing a model of excellence in the intersection of architecture and real estate development.
