

Faith on the Highway: Edward Smith's Spiritual Awakening in "My Encounter with God"

A powerful audiobook testimony reveals how surrendering to God transforms even the most stubborn hearts

Los Angeles, California Oct 6, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - In a deeply personal and spiritually charged memoir, Edward Smith delivers a transformative message of faith, surrender, and purpose in "My Encounter with God as a Commercial Truck Driver", now available as an unabridged audiobook narrated by Dave Melcher.

What began as a career behind the wheel evolved into something far more profound. Through a collection of raw and reflective testimonies, Smith recounts how God had been preparing him for a divine encounter all along. Childhood struggles, moments of doubt, and life's crucibles were not setbacks—they were stepping stones for spiritual awakening. Guided by God's hand, Smith found meaning in hardship and witnessed firsthand the power of transformation through surrender.

The book dives into the internal battle between good and evil that every believer faces, especially the struggle against pride—the “secret enemy” that can dominate one's life without warning. Smith explains how victory is found not through control, but through letting go and allowing God's will to take the lead.

With a listening length of just under two hours, “My Encounter with God as a Commercial Truck Driver” offers a concentrated, impactful message for anyone seeking clarity, breakthrough, or encouragement in their walk with Christ. It's a call to take spiritual inventory—and find the courage to act.

With heartfelt sincerity and biblical insight, Edward Smith's story affirms that no matter one's profession or past, God meets people wherever they are. As Smith writes: “Empowerment comes with surrendering.”
