

Hide and Shine Captures Emotion in Its Purest Form with New Single 'Look Terrified'

Hide and Shine releases a new song, 'Look Terrified', which blends emotion, grit, and mystery through poetic lyrics and haunting visuals that stay with listeners.

Kingston, Oct 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Hide and Shine return with their latest release, 'Look Terrified', and it is already making quite a noise in the industry. Music has always been a mirror of emotion, where some songs rush in with energy, and some leave listeners with an echo that feels both nostalgic and unfamiliar at the same time. This new track by the band gives listeners a complete experience that lives somewhere between memory and revelation. The song opens with a haze of guitars that cut through like memories half-remembered. The entire composition feels very nostalgic to the audience, making the song irresistible to them. The composition has a slow build that turns into a wave of energy. This pulls the listener into its strange and emotional core from the very beginning. The production also has a mix of post-punk grit with a haunting kind of melody, making the song linger for a long time.

Every element of the song feels refreshing, proving the artists have done an impeccable job again. The vocals on the track carry an ache that sits somewhere between defiance and reflection. This pushes through the sound with an honesty that feels rare. The newly released track is also accompanied by a music video, which adds another layer to the song's story. The video moves through strange and dreamlike visuals that mirror the confusion and tension in the lyrics. The audience would enjoy the cinematic tone in the visuals, which are given by the shadows, flashes, and quiet close-ups. The video feels like the audience is watching someone's memories fall apart and rebuild at the same time.

The vibe of the song stays dark yet tender. It offers a glimpse into the kind of emotional depth that Hide and Shine build so naturally into their work. The band has carved out its own sound over time. They describe it as "An Art Death Indie Post-Punk Country Rock Alternative". This is what actually defines them in their spirit. Their music carries the raw punch of The Replacements, the sweet chaos of Dinosaur Jr., and the introspection of Radiohead. With the release of 'Look Terrified', the band has added another impactful song to their long list of uniquely built music that any music lover would enjoy. Watch the video on YouTube along with some of their previous releases, like 'Detroit Rising (Mad Music Video)', 'Can't Wait to Catch Fire (single)', 'Metamorphosis (single)', etc. Follow them on Instagram, Spotify, Apple Music, and their website for more updates.
