Body:

(October 2025 – Worldwide) — Innovative songwriter, producer, and architect iKRE8 proudly announces the release of his new project, RED+, now available on all major streaming platforms.

RED+ delivers a fusion of hip-hop, pop, and futuristic AI-directed production that merges raw energy with emotional depth. The project features remastered versions, re-envisioned arrangements, and four brand-new tracks that expand iKRE8's evolving Color Album Series, showcasing the intersection of human creativity and digital innovation.

"I wanted to bring a directed sound to life," says iKRE8. "This project represents passion, experimentation, and how creativity can evolve through technology."

Using AI tools as creative instruments, iKRE8 personally directed every layer of the project—from tone and tempo to structure and texture — meticulously shaping each sound to create a cohesive, high-impact listening experience.
