Jennifer Stumph: A Seasoned Leader in Retail Property Management at A & C Properties, Inc.

Phoenix, Arizona Oct 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Phoenix, Arizona – A & C Properties, Inc. proudly announces Jennifer Stumph as the Designated Broker and Senior Property Manager, overseeing an extensive retail portfolio across Arizona and Nevada. With over three decades of invaluable experience in commercial real estate, Jennifer has established herself as a leader in retail property management.

Her career commenced in 1991 at CB Commercial (now CBRE) in Los Angeles, where she adeptly transitioned from the legal department into brokerage and marketing, ultimately specializing in property management more than 25 years ago. Throughout her career, Jennifer has collaborated with well-respected organizations such as Northern Automotive Corporation (now O'Reilly Auto Parts) and Inverness, LLC, honing her expertise in site selection, operations, and tenant relations.

Since joining A & C Properties in 2004, Jennifer has successfully managed a diverse retail portfolio encompassing Arizona, Southern California, and Las Vegas. Her ability to foster long-term relationships with tenants and clients distinguishes her as a dedicated professional in the industry. Her unwavering commitment to exceptional service complements Jennifer's strategic management style.

"I attribute my success to honesty, integrity, active listening, and a genuine passion for helping people," Jennifer states. These values guide her in understanding each client's goals, supporting tenants' leasing and maintenance needs, while also ensuring the investors' assets are well-managed, providing for business growth and prosperity. Jennifer has been fortunate to work alongside exceptional mentors throughout her career, which has shaped her approach to property management.

When discussing her passion for real estate, Jennifer highlights the diversity of the industry. "Commercial real estate, particularly retail, is always interesting, fun, and exciting. Working with national retail groups is a continuous learning experience, as each corporate structure is different. It's never boring, nor does the work feel tedious. My favorite experiences develop over time—it's incredibly fulfilling to watch a startup business grow over the years. Cultivating those relationships becomes personal; you get to know the owners and their families, watch their kids grow up, and celebrate their successes. A truly great manager isn't just there for the triumphs but does their very best to support clients through hardships as well."

Outside of her professional life, Jennifer enjoys traveling, cherishing moments with friends and family, and embarking on long motorcycle rides with her husband.

A & C Properties, Inc. is excited to have Jennifer Stumph leading the way in retail property management, driving growth and success within the vibrant commercial real estate landscape.
