

Nicholas Weber, MD, MPH, FAAFP, Joins Roslyn Primary Care Center to Enhance Patient-Centered Care

Board-Certified Family Medicine Physician Committed to Preventive Health and Community Well-Being

New York City, New York Oct 23, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Roslyn Primary Care Center is excited to announce the addition of Nicholas Weber, MD, MPH, FAAFP, to its esteemed team of healthcare providers, effective October 2025. With a steadfast commitment to delivering compassionate, patient-centered care, Dr. Weber is poised to make a significant impact on the health and well-being of individuals and families in the Roslyn community.

A board-certified family physician, Dr. Weber earned his Medical Degree from the American University of the Caribbean School of Medicine in 2020. He completed his residency in Family Medicine at Nassau University Medical Center, where he demonstrated exceptional leadership as Chief Resident. His dedication to advancing primary care is reflected in his emphasis on preventive medicine, chronic disease management, and long-term continuity of care for patients at every stage of life.

Dr. Weber holds medical licenses in both New York and Michigan, is a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians, and is board-certified through the American Board of Family Medicine. His qualifications position him to address a wide range of health concerns, ensuring that patients receive comprehensive care tailored to their individual needs.

In addition to his clinical practice, Dr. Weber is actively engaged in research and education within the field of family medicine. He has contributed to the medical community through various publications, including a notable chapter with the New York State Osteopathic Society, showcasing his commitment to advancing medical knowledge and practices.

Outside of his professional endeavors, Dr. Weber enjoys staying active, spending quality time with his family, and participating in local sports and outdoor activities. His holistic approach to health emphasizes not only physical well-being but also the importance of mental and emotional health in achieving a balanced lifestyle.
