

PettingZoo.fun Launches Comprehensive Directory for U.S. Petting Zoos

New free website helps parents save time with state-level guides, interactive maps, and a family-focused blog for planning memorable animal adventures.

Los Angeles, California Oct 27, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Finding reliable, consolidated information for a family trip to a petting zoo has long been a challenge for parents navigating a sea of outdated websites and incomplete social media pages. A new online resource, PettingZoo.fun, has officially launched to solve this problem, providing a single, trustworthy directory for family-friendly farm animal attractions across the United States.

Since its launch in August, PettingZoo.fun has been designed to be the ultimate planning tool for parents. The site's core mission is to replace hours of frustrating searching with a simple, enjoyable discovery process.

Key features that make trip planning easier include:

- Intuitive Geographic Search: Users can explore petting zoos by state and major city, complete with an interactive map on each page.
- Valuable Content Hub: The platform includes a blog with articles offering practical advice and fun ideas to help families make the most of their visit.

- Community-Verified Information: Petting zoo owners are invited to claim their listing on the site to keep their information current, ensuring parents have the most accurate details available.
- Future Growth: The site plans to expand by launching in-depth profile pages for every listed venue, providing even more detailed information for families.

The idea for PettingZoo.fun came directly from my own experience as a parent trying to plan a simple day out," says Charles, the Founder. "I wanted to build a clean, simple, and comprehensive resource that I would personally use. Seeing other families and zoo owners get excited about it has been the best part of this journey."
