Tjara Unveils Shariah-Compliant Halal Mortgage Program for Canadian Home Buyers

Empowering Muslim families across Canada with interest-free, ethical home financing solutions.

Mississauga, Ontario Oct 15, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Tjara Halal Mortgage Solutions, a pioneering halal finance firm, officially launches its Shariah-compliant mortgage program aimed at helping Muslim Canadians own homes without the burden of interest (riba).

Traditional mortgages involve interest payments, which many Muslim families seek to avoid for religious reasons. Tjara offers an ethical alternative based on the Musharakah (partnership) financial structure, where both the client and Tjara co-own the property. Over time, the client acquires Tjara’s share while paying rent on the portion they do not yet own, ensuring every step is compliant with Islamic finance principles.

Our focus is to remove barriers for homeownership for Muslims in Canada. CEO of Tjara. “Through transparency, fairness, and Shariah guidance, we provide an option that respects faith and supports real dreams of owning a home.”

As demand for interest-free and ethical financial products grows, Tjara also launches educational resources and personalized consultation services to guide home buyers through the halal mortgage process.
