The engagement ring landscape is evolving, and couples today are looking for pieces that display both stunning beauty and conscious consumption. Nothing reflects this modern ethos like a 2.50-carat elongated cushion, lab-grown diamond solitaire ring.

The magnificent long pillow-cut diamond, the elongated cushion-cut diamond, is an elegant, sophisticated twist on the classic pillow shape, differing with a stretched, rectangular silhouette. This shape has exploded in popularity, and for good reason. The true magic of this ring begins with the centerpiece: the long cushion cut.

The extended length creates a finger-slimming silhouette that looks extremely attractive on the hand. Unlike its square cousin, the rectangular cushion-cut diamond ring offers a unique optical advantage. This 2.5-carat diamond offers immense sparkle and brilliant visual presence. Elongation not only makes the stone sophisticated, but it also maximizes the face-up size of the diamond. This means you get the magnificence of a larger diamond that looks even more significant than a traditional cut of the same carat weight. The pillow's soft corners and elegant, modern design make it the perfect harmony of vintage charm.

The choice of a classic solitaire setting in white gold elevates the design further. The solitaire setting is eternally timeless, ensuring that the focus remains entirely on the stunning center stone. White gold provides a brilliant, neutral background that enhances the colorless fire of the diamond and serves as a universally favorite modern metal choice.
