

A Spirit-Led Journey Through Life's Highs and Lows

“New Life Psalms: Poems and Praises from the Trails of a New Life” by Ronald Metz Wins Acclaim for its Transformative and Faith-Filled Poetry

Los Angeles, California Nov 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - In his remarkable poetry collection “New Life Psalms: Poems and Praises from the Trails of a New Life.” author Ronald Metz offers readers a moving invitation to walk hand in hand with the Holy Spirit. Through vivid imagery and lyrical reflections, Metz blends real-life experiences with deep scriptural truths, encouraging spiritual growth and renewed faith amid everyday moments.

Guided by the belief that the Holy Spirit weaves the broken pieces of our lives into something meaningful, Metz writes with intention, compassion, and clarity. Each poem is a snapshot of an “intersection”—where faith meets daily life, and where God’s love is made visible through people, places, and choices. This collection is not just for the religious, but for anyone seeking meaning and hope in the midst of life’s complexity.

“New Life Psalms” was recently recognized as a Notable Book by Pacific Book Review, where reviewer

Lily Amanda describes it as “illuminating and hard-hitting,” praising Metz for helping readers “recapture their focus on what truly matters—our faith in the Lord.” She adds, “The luminous collection will seep into your soul and will most likely bring about a kind of spiritual awakening.”

With themes such as grace, hardship, beauty, and purpose, Metz invites readers into a sacred dialogue—one marked by reflection, resilience, and joy. Whether drawing from a moment on a wooded path or the quiet ache of introspection, each entry serves as a stepping stone toward spiritual wholeness.

Accessible, heartfelt, and wise, “New Life Psalms” is a must-read for anyone yearning to experience God at the intersection of life and love.
