Manila, Luzon Nov 20, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Books To Life Marketing proudly presents Surviving Breast Cancer: My Personal Story by Ady Iribhogbe, an inspiring true account of faith, endurance, and divine healing. In this heartfelt memoir, Ady chronicles her battle with breast cancer and her remarkable journey toward physical and spiritual recovery. Through her story, she reminds readers that faith in God, patience, and perseverance are essential to overcoming even the most difficult seasons of life.

“Time and waiting are the keys to healing after the damage cancer treatment does to you, and these are also the two hardest things to comprehend. Our nature as humans makes us demand that healing happen quickly and fast, but that is not so. Healing takes time, and we cannot rush the process. So you might as well just ‘hurry up and wait.’ Wait patiently, wait prayerfully, taking one day at a time and doing the best you can do each day while maintaining a positive attitude.”

— Ady Iribhogbe

After receiving her breast cancer diagnosis, Ady was determined not to let fear or despair take control. Her story offers a deeply personal look at her experiences with cancer treatment, faith, and resilience, showing readers that with God’s strength, healing is possible. Now eight years cancer-free, Ady shares her journey to give hope and encouragement to women around the world facing similar challenges.

Surviving Breast Cancer: My Personal Story is not just a testimony of survival—it is a message of love, faith, and God’s unwavering presence through every storm.
