

Angel Terron Expands Vision: Announces New Music Slate and Feature Film Debut POLAR

A Woman creating wealth through story telling. Filmmaker Angel Terron will soon be earning well into the six-figures

Atlanta, Georgia Nov 4, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Angel Terron, The acclaimed multi-hyphenate artist, writer, and producer, is a powerful woman in the film industry of 20 years alongside a slate of highly anticipated new music.

Terron has officially signed a distribution deal with Tribeca Distribution Company for her upcoming feature film debut, POLAR, scheduled for release in 2026.

The film Polar (2026) is based on a screenplay written and produced by Terron, focusing on critical emotional climate control issues. Mental illness - A woman's life turned upside down in the wake of tragedy, pushed her to attempt suicide- with her loving husband and daughter praying for her to regain consciousness so they can live life together again- the feature boasts a notable cast, including Andrea Kelly and Reggie Gaskins.

An advocate for Abuse, Mental illness

Connecting Film, Music, and Emotion

Terron's creative work is deeply interconnected. Her music, released through United Masters, often explores the emotional landscapes central to her film concepts. This synergy is particularly evident in the thematic connection between her new records and her film projects, which explore the complexities of modern relationships.

The upcoming 2025 music collection is inspired by the themes of the "Situationship" drama Terron is developing—a narrative focusing on two people in a relationship where one is emotionally unavailable while the other is falling deeply in love, forcing them to navigate moving apart. Songs like the introspective ballad "I'm Not Ready (2 Let Go)" embody this emotional conflict.

Terron is also developing the feature horror film "Tillow", which is based on the terrifying psychological phenomenon of sleep paralysis.

New Music Schedule

RELATIONSHIP GOALS - RG

@applemusic @spotify

The 2025 music slate promises to showcase Angel Terron's versatile range, blending R&B, Soul, and contemporary Pop to deliver deeply emotional and resonant tracks. Her first single

"Don't walk away" back in 2015 serves why being in the studio at KDS made it easy to revisit music.

I'm Sorry For Loving You - Aug 2025 first single release from Album

Vulnerable- Sep 2025

I'm Not Ready (2 Let Go)" – Nov 2025

Every Moment With You (Mama)" – Dec 2025

Puerto Rico Dreams" – Oct 2025

Unexpected Surprise" – Sep 2025

"This new chapter, blending my work as a filmmaker with my music, is the most exciting and personal phase of my career," said Angel Terron. "The music is the emotional soundtrack to the stories I want to tell on screen. I'm eager for fans to hear the depth and energy we put into these tracks, and I am honored to partner with Tribeca to bring the message and scope of Polar to a wider audience."

Details regarding the official trailer launch for Polar and a potential supporting music twill be announced in the coming months.

Angel Terron is a rising multi-genre artist, celebrated for her smooth vocals, heartfelt songwriting, and dynamic storytelling as a writer.

With her music distributed through United Masters and her film projects gaining major distribution, Angels burgeoning career is rapidly approaching a six-figure income level.

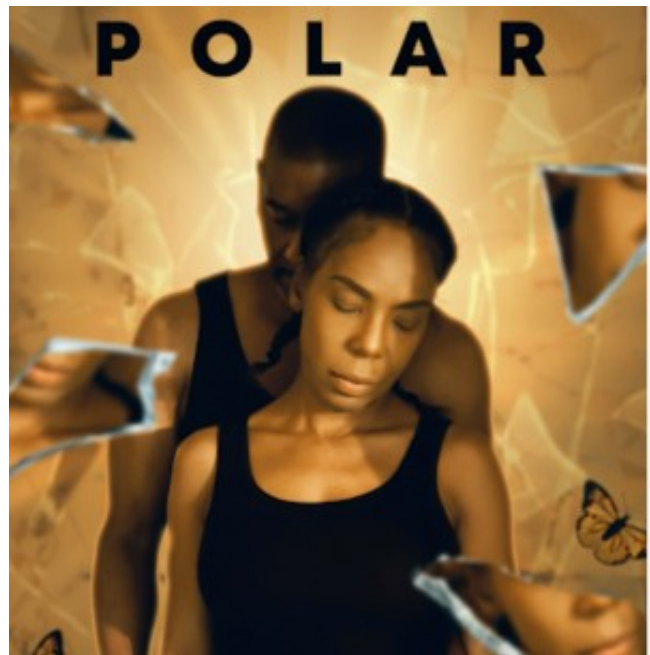

Contact:

[Joy Parris]

[jparris@richgirlproduction.com]

[1.323.960.5600]

<https://unitedmasters.com/angel-terron>

Media Contact

ATP

@angelterronproductions.com

Source : Publicist

See on IssueWire

