

Apolosign Black Friday Sale — Annual Lowest Prices on Must-Have Family Display Devices

November 20 – December 2 | Digital Calendar, Portable TV, and Neon Light Photo Frame for Holiday Gift Giving and Family Organization

Los Angeles, California Nov 24, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - A Helping Hand for Busy Holiday Families

As the holiday season approaches, many American families face overlapping schedules with work, school activities, and festive preparations. Apolosign today announced the launch of its 2025 Black Friday sale, offering the company's digital calendar, portable TV, and neon light photo frame at their lowest prices of the year. Limited-time discounts reach up to 30% OFF + an extra $50 OFF, providing an ideal opportunity for holiday gift giving and family organization.

"In busy holiday periods, every family needs a reliable tool to manage schedules, motivate kids, and bring extra holiday joy," said Fyhack, Apolosign's product lead. "Our products help families stay organized while enjoying rich entertainment experiences."

Digital Calendar: Streamline Family Schedules

The Apolosign Digital Calendar is available in 15.6", 21.5", and 27" sizes, with the 27" model offering 1080p or 4K ultra HD display. The touchscreen supports landscape or portrait mode and automatic brightness adjustment. Its immersive family calendar mode provides a clear view of all household schedules, while the Android mode allows installation of apps for a fully customizable experience.

The calendar features a daily task points and rewards system, enabling children to earn points for completed tasks, which parents can redeem for small rewards—making time management both fun and educational. DIY widgets allow families to organize panels with schedules, chores, meals, weather, or entertainment, giving each household the flexibility to personalize their setup.

The device requires no subscription, so all features are available immediately after purchase. Built-in music and voice reminders bring schedules to life, while touchscreen and voice control make it easy for all family members to view, add, or adjust tasks.

During the Black Friday sale, the 15.6" Digital Calendar is available for just $249, offering families a practical and thoughtful holiday gift.

Portable TV: Entertainment Anywhere in the Home

The 32" portable smart TV is lightweight and easy to move, making it ideal for kitchens, bedrooms, or backyard setups. Equipped with 4K display, dual speakers, and automatic brightness adjustment, it delivers high-quality viewing experiences. The built-in 4-hour rechargeable battery eliminates the need for constant plug-in, and the TV supports streaming apps including Netflix and YouTube.

Whether it's background entertainment while children complete homework in the kitchen or a backyard movie night for the whole family, this portable TV adapts seamlessly. Touchscreen and remote controls make operation simple for all users. During the Black Friday promotion, the 32" Portable TV is available for just $749.
