

Bilingual Speech-Language Pathologist, Hannah Massa, MS, CCC-SLP, Empowers Communication in Children

Embracing a Neurodiversity-Affirming, Naturalistic, and Developmental Approach to Foster Meaningful Connections

Phoenix, Arizona Nov 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Hannah Massa, MS, CCC-SLP, is a bilingual Certified Speech-Language Pathologist at Soar Autism Center. Specializing in early intervention services for children ages 2–6, she is dedicated to providing a neurodiversity-affirming, naturalistic, and developmental approach to speech and language therapy, primarily serving families throughout the Phoenix and Scottsdale areas.

With over five years of experience in the Arizona public school system, Hannah has demonstrated her commitment to supporting children with diverse communication needs. Her work spans a variety of settings, including preschool through eighth-grade classrooms, general education, and specialized programs for children with Autism and Intellectual Disabilities. Additionally, her clinical exposure includes acute inpatient medical settings and internships focused on bilingual evaluation, pediatric speech services, and voice disorder management. This rich background enables Hannah to customize her therapeutic strategies to meet the unique needs of each child and family.

Hannah holds dual Bachelor of Arts degrees in Communication Sciences and Disorders and Spanish from the University of Wisconsin–Madison, as well as a Master of Science in Communication Disorders from Arizona State University, earned in 2020. Certified as a Bilingual (Spanish) provider by the Arizona Department of Education, she is passionate about advancing inclusive, family-centered care for children with communication differences.

Inspired by her father's journey through rehabilitation after a stroke, Hannah's personal experiences have profoundly shaped her career path. Witnessing the transformative power of compassionate care ignited her passion for helping others find their voice and establish meaningful connections. This motivation drives her to create a supportive and welcoming environment for all families she serves.

At Soar Autism Center, Hannah Massa is dedicated to integrating evidence-based practices with heartfelt compassion, empowering children to thrive in their learning and daily lives. Families seeking speech-language services that affirm individual linguistic and neurodivergent needs can look forward to the unique blend of expertise, empathy, and commitment that Hannah brings to her practice.
