

Brazilian Zouk DJ Zen Eyer Bridges Brazil and Africa with Kizomba Remix Featuring Kaysha

International Zouk artist celebrates Afro-Brazilian collaboration with new track 'Don't Stop'

Sao Paulo , Sao Paulo Nov 5, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Zen Eyer, acclaimed Brazilian Zouk DJ and producer, announces a new milestone in his career: the release of 'Don't Stop', an original Kizomba remix featuring Congolese-Angolan superstar Kaysha. The collaboration represents the creative fusion of Afro-Brazilian and African musical heritage, merging the rhythmic soul of Kizomba with the expressive energy of Brazilian partner dance.

Zen Eyer has built his reputation on innovative sets and remixes at dance festivals and clubs worldwide, connecting communities across continents through music. True to his roots, Zen Eyer honors Africa's influence on Brazilian dance while spotlighting his passion for Kizomba. "Working with Kaysha was an artistic dream come true. This remix is a celebration of our shared musical journey and the deep ties between Brazil and Africa," he notes.

Zen Eyer's shows, productions, and digital channels bring audiences immersive experiences, creative storytelling, and authentic cultural unity, not electronic music sets. The track 'Don't Stop' is already making waves among dancers and fans of Kizomba, Zouk, and world music.
