

Dark Night Outdoors Celebrates More Than 6 Years in Business

Milan, Illinois Nov 5, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Since 2021, Dark Night Outdoors has been a trusted supplier of thermal scopes and optics, and in 2025 celebrated its 6th year in business. For nocturnal hunters, Dark Night Outdoors is a one-stop shop representing the best brands.

In its collection of thermal scopes and optics, Dark Night Outdoors sells thermal rifle scopes, monoculars, binoculars, scanners, and more. They represent the leading brands, including but not limited to PULSAR, RIX, Nocpix, iRay, AGM, and many others.

Dark Night Outdoors is a trusted supplier of some of the most popular thermal optics in the industry, such as the Nocpix ACE, Pulsar Thermion, RIX Leap & Storm series, PULSAR Axion Telos and the New Oryx thermal scanners, as well as InfiRay Hybrid & Hybrid Compact optics, among many others.

Their broad collection also offers options for potential buyers on both ends of the spectrum, both those who are just getting into nocturnal hunting and need their first thermal scope, as well as experienced hunters who are looking for a faster, sharper thermal scope that represents an upgrade in performance.

Yet the company offers much more than just thermal scopes and scanners. As an industry specialist in thermal optics, Dark Night Outdoors also designs and produces a wide variety of accessories for thermal scopes, monoculars, and tripods. Their online catalog is full of cable management accessories, external battery packs, power cords, battery sets, adapters, Eye Cups (Guards) Tripod leveling heads, Scope Mounts and much more.

In addition to the thermal optics they sell, the company is a one stop shop for night hunting, and carries a wide range of other field gear and hunting accessories, including but not limited to night vision scopes, red dot sights, calls and decoys.

Taken together, these considerations have propelled Dark Night Outdoors to the top of the industry as a trusted supplier, and a leading seller of thermal optics and nocturnal hunting accessories. Today, the company is a thermal optic superstore and one of the country's leading sellers of nocturnal hunting accessories.

The company's inventory is curated to support and enhance the success of thermal hunting day and night of Feral Hogs, Coyotes and all predators, but all hunters all over the country can benefit from their product selection and expertise.
