David Welles: Your Premier Global Equestrian Real Estate Advisor in Wellington, Florida

Wellington, Florida Nov 13, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - David Welles, a distinguished Global Equestrian Real Estate Advisor with Equestrian Sotheby's International Realty, is redefining the luxury real estate market in Wellington, Florida. With a specialized focus on equestrian, luxury, and estate properties,

David combines his extensive background in construction and real estate to provide clients with an unparalleled understanding of property development and market dynamics.

Since relocating to Wellington in 2001, inspired by his daughter's participation in The Winter Equestrian Festival, David has cultivated robust relationships within both local and international equestrian communities. His professionalism, discretion, and meticulous attention to detail have earned him the respect of clients and peers alike. "I pride myself on delivering exceptional service and maintaining confidentiality in every transaction," said David. "It's essential to build trust with my clients, and I strive to exceed their expectations at every turn."

David's extensive portfolio boasts active listings exceeding $90 million, featuring a diverse array of equestrian farms, land, and luxury estate homes throughout Wellington and the Palm Beaches. His commitment to his clients is evident, with the majority of his transactions stemming from referrals—an endorsement of his expertise, positive approach and confidentiality.

A top-producing agent since the inception of his career, David has consistently been recognized among Equestrian Sotheby's International Realty's leading listing and sales associates since 2015. His success can be attributed to a full-time dedication to every transaction, in-depth market knowledge, and a genuine passion for helping clients realize their real estate goals.

Before his esteemed career in real estate, David directed national business development initiatives in the commercial, healthcare, and technology construction sectors, managing projects that generated over $600 million in revenue. This wealth of experience enriches his real estate practice, allowing him to navigate complex transactions with confidence and skill.

On a personal note, David is married and has two children. His daughter, Julie, excels as a professional equestrian competing on the international stage, while his son and daughter-in-law are thriving commercial real estate agents based in Dallas, Texas.
