Doug Duncan: Your Trusted New Home Sales Consultant at Lennar Homes in Tampa

Tampa, Florida Nov 20, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Doug Duncan, a seasoned New Home Sales Consultant with Lennar Homes in the Tampa division, is committed to providing exceptional service to clients across various locations in Florida. With nearly two decades of experience in general real estate and owning his own brokerage, Doug offers unparalleled expertise in residential real estate and new construction, ensuring that his clients receive personalized attention and informed guidance throughout the home-buying process.

As a specialist in residential new construction, Doug holds several esteemed designations, including Certified Luxury Home Marketing Specialist and Seniors Real Estate Specialist. He is also a Licensed Realtor with a broker's license, making him a valuable resource for homebuyers navigating community amenities, financing options, and incentives. Doug's deep knowledge of the VA loan process further enhances his ability to assist clients in making informed decisions regarding their new home purchase.

Doug's dedication to excellence has not gone unnoticed. He has received the prestigious Icon Agent Award from EXP Realty for eight consecutive years, placing him among the top two percent of agents in the industry. This recognition is a testament to his unwavering commitment to guiding clients confidently through their home-buying journey, helping them achieve their real estate dreams.

"Building connections with people and assisting them in achieving their dream of homeownership is what drives me," Doug shared. "I am grateful for my success and give all the glory to God. It is truly fulfilling to meet new individuals, learn their stories, and empower them with the knowledge they need to make the best decisions for their future."

Outside of real estate, Doug enjoys an active lifestyle. He is passionate about playing golf, tennis and has recently discovered the exciting sport of pickleball. Doug also loves spending time at the beach, soaking in the sun and ocean breeze, and frequently showcases his singing talents at community events and karaoke nights, where his enthusiasm and energy create a vibrant atmosphere.

For those looking to embark on the journey to homeownership, Doug Duncan stands ready to provide the guidance, expertise, and personal touch that sets him apart in the Tampa real estate market.
