

Dr. Raj Kumar and Ms. Supriya Jain Honored with Seva Ratna Samman

Delhi, India Nov 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - India's renowned young author Dr. Raj Kumar (Bharatpur, Rajasthan) and Ms. Supriya Jain, Founder and CEO of Sjain Publication (Delhi), have been honored with the “Seva Ratna Samman” by the H.A. Welfare Foundation for their outstanding social contributions and efforts in promoting cultural awareness.

Dr. Raj Kumar has gained national recognition for dedicating 75% of the royalties from his book to the Shri Ram Mandir in Ayodhya and Apna Ghar Ashram, Bharatpur. His selfless dedication to social service and human values continues to inspire the youth of India.

Meanwhile, Ms. Supriya Jain, as the Founder and CEO of Sjain Publication, has been creating a new identity in the literary world. Her publishing house has provided a platform for hundreds of writers to turn their creativity into published books. Under her leadership, Sjain Publication has not only supported authors across India but has also extended its reach to international writers, fostering literary growth and awareness.

The award ceremony, organized by the H.A. Welfare Foundation, celebrated distinguished personalities from the fields of social work, education, literature, and cultural development.

On this occasion, Dr. Raj Kumar said —

“The opportunity to serve society itself is the greatest honor. This award belongs not only to me but to all those who selflessly dedicate themselves to the service of others.”

Ms. Supriya Jain expressed her gratitude, stating —

“This honor belongs to the entire Sjain family. Our mission is to help every author gain recognition and to bring positive change in society through literature.”

This award not only acknowledges their individual achievements but also conveys a powerful message — that literature and social service together can awaken a new consciousness in society.
