

“ENCOUNTERS with GOD” Earns Recognition from the US Review of Books

William K. Dorrance bridges science and spirituality in a groundbreaking exploration of the soul, suffering, and the afterlife

Los Angeles, California Nov 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The US Review of Books has awarded “ENCOUNTERS with GOD” by William K. Dorrance a RECOMMENDED designation, praising its fluid and insightful approach to age-old spiritual questions.

In this compelling work, Dorrance examines humanity’s deepest inquiries—“Why does suffering exist?” “Do people have souls?” and “Is there proof of an afterlife?”—through the combined lenses of science, psychology, and spiritual testimony. Drawing on decades of research into near-death experiences, past life regressions, psychic phenomena, and deathbed visions, the book offers overwhelming evidence that souls and an afterlife exist, while also challenging the scientific and religious communities’ long-standing reluctance to acknowledge such realities.

The US Review of Books commends Dorrance’s ability to navigate science, spirituality, and philosophy, noting that his work demonstrates “a pathway to heightened human consciousness and detachment from the materialistic world of engagement, and a full immersion in God’s light.” The review highlights the author’s unique skill in juxtaposing Eastern religious traditions with Western scientific thought, producing a text that resonates across belief systems and intellectual disciplines.

A retired optometrist, William K. Dorrance has spent nearly forty years collecting empirical, anecdotal, and logical evidence supporting the reality of God, souls, and an afterlife. His personal mystical experiences, combined with scientific case studies and historical insights, have culminated in “ENCOUNTERS with GOD”—a work designed to inspire both seekers of spiritual truth and advocates of evidence-based reasoning.

“ENCOUNTERS with GOD” invites readers to step beyond dogma into an open, intellectually satisfying journey of discovery and faith.
