

Falcon Trails Launches 2025 India Tour Packages with Vaishno Devi Helicopter Yatra Assistance

The Srinagar-based travel company announces new India and international tour packages for 2025, blending spirituality, comfort, and adventure.

Srinagar, Jammu and Kashmir Dec 21, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Falcon Trails, a trusted name in Indian travel and tourism, has officially announced its 2025 lineup of India tour packages designed to inspire travelers seeking both cultural depth and comfort. With a focus on holistic travel experiences, Falcon Trails continues to bridge the gap between spirituality, leisure, and adventure.

The new season's offerings include diverse destinations — from Kashmir's scenic valleys and Kerala's serene backwaters to Rajasthan's royal heritage and Himachal's mountain escapes. For pilgrims, the brand's Vaishno Devi Yatra packages feature helicopter booking assistance, smooth transportation, and comfortable accommodation for a stress-free spiritual journey.

"We believe travel should be meaningful, effortless, and memorable," says a spokesperson for Falcon Trails. "Every itinerary we design is guided by passion, precision, and local expertise — turning each trip into a story worth sharing."

The company also announced affordable international packages to Dubai, Vietnam, and Thailand, offering global travelers a blend of culture, comfort, and convenience. Each package includes verified hotels, professional guidance, and 24/7 on-trip support.

With over a decade of experience in curating travel experiences, Falcon Trails stands for trust, transparency, and transformative journeys — embodying the philosophy that “your journey begins the moment you dream it.”
