

From Boston to the Underground: CCFIEND Emerges as a Cinematic Rap Visionary

Boston, Massachusetts Nov 5, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - CCFIEND is an Artist/Songwriter originally from Boston, Massachusetts. He creates music that combines alternative rap with the catchy appeal of melodic pop.

Since starting his journey in late 2018, he has honed his skills in everything from songwriting to mixing and mastering, building a distinct presence in the underground music scene. Known for his cinematic approach to music, CCFIEND proudly dons the title "Ridley Scott of underground music," infusing his tracks with vivid storytelling and unparalleled vision.

Beyond his own releases, CCFIEND has went behind the curtains of the industry as a ghostwriter, crafting his distinct sound that brought success to other artists. This behind-the-scenes work not only added to his versatility but also fueled his drive to create music that's unmistakably his own.

Emerging from Boston, Massachusetts, CCFIEND has been crafting his unique sound since late 2018. Drawing inspiration from underground icons like Weiland, Summrs, and Hella Sketchy, his music blends ethereal melodies with raw, emotional energy that captures the pulse of the new wave underground. While Boston isn't a city often spotlighted for its music scene, CCFIEND is carving his own lane, proving that origin doesn't define impact.

"I build the feeling people end up chasing."

When you listen to CCFIEND, the aim is to catch a good vibe and let it ride. Every track is built to sound clean, hit right, and bring you back to a good moment when you hear it again. I'm not trying to be America's next top rapper, just someone whose music can lift your mood or spark a memory for a few minutes.
