

Gresham Appoints Mark Hepsworth as CEO

London, United Kingdom Nov 28, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Gresham, a global leader in enterprise data automation solutions, today announced the appointment of Mark Hepsworth as Chief Executive Officer. Hepsworth transitions into the role from his position as Chair of Gresham's board.

Hepsworth succeeds Ian Manocha, who has stepped down after a decade of leadership during which he guided the company through significant transformation and growth.

With over 25 years of experience in financial services technology, data, and analytics, Hepsworth is uniquely positioned to lead Gresham's next phase of expansion. He previously served as CEO of Alveo, a market leader in financial data management that recently merged with Gresham under the ownership of STG. Prior to Alveo, he held senior management positions at Interactive Data (now ICE Data Services).

Mark Hepsworth, CEO of Gresham, commented, "Gresham is at the forefront of transforming enterprise data automation, and I look forward to further building the company's reputation for innovation. Data management is a key initiative for financial institutions as data requirements and complexity continue to grow. At Gresham we will continue to focus on providing solutions that address clients' evolving requirements and simplify data automation around mission-critical operating processes."
