

Independent Hardwood Floor Company Marks 20 Years Serving Colorado Homeowners

Littleton-based hardwood flooring specialist celebrates two decades of craftsmanship and word-of-mouth growth across South Metro Denver communities.

Littleton, Colorado Nov 23, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Independent Hardwood Floor Company, a locally owned hardwood flooring specialist serving the South Metro Denver area, has reached a milestone of more than 20 years in business. The company has built its client base entirely through referrals and repeat customers across Littleton, Castle Rock, Centennial, Parker, and Highlands Ranch.

Founded on principles of traditional craftsmanship and transparent communication, Independent Hardwood Floor Company provides hardwood floor installation, repair, and refinishing services for residential properties. The business has maintained a consistent approach throughout its two decades: owner Brian Jorgensen personally oversees each project from consultation through completion.

"I've always believed hardwood floors should be done the right way, not the fast way," said Jorgensen. "Families trust us to work in their homes, and that's something we take seriously. My goal is simple: leave people with floors they'll be proud of for decades, not just until the next remodel."

The company's longevity in Colorado's competitive home improvement market reflects a business model centered on direct homeowner relationships rather than volume-based contracting. Clients typically engage Independent Hardwood Floor Company for projects requiring detailed attention to wood grain matching, historical restoration work, and repairs that maintain the integrity of existing flooring.

Independent Hardwood Floor Company has witnessed significant changes in Colorado's housing market over the past 20 years, from the growth of master-planned communities in Douglas County to the renovation of mid-century homes in established Littleton neighborhoods. Throughout these shifts, the company has maintained its focus on quality materials and time-tested installation techniques.
