Championing Women's Health and Menopausal Care Amid the Stunning Landscape of Jackson, Wyoming

Jackson, Wyoming Nov 25, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Jackson, Wyoming – Jackson Whole Family Health is proud to have Kimberly Mellick, FNP-BC, MSCP, on its dedicated team of healthcare professionals. A Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner since 2011 and a Menopause Society Certified Provider, Kim brings a wealth of experience and expertise to the practice, with a particular emphasis on supporting women through the menopausal transition.

Kim earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Oregon Health & Science University in 2003, followed by a Master of Science in Nursing at Western University of Health Sciences in 2011, where she graduated Summa Cum Laude and was honored with the prestigious Bobbi Stahl Leadership Award. Her extensive training and commitment to excellence have positioned her as a trusted provider in the Jackson area.

Throughout her career, Kim has developed a diverse skill set, gaining valuable experience in orthopedics, urgent care, primary care, and reproductive health. In 2023, she made the decision to join Charlotte Mason, DNP, at Jackson Whole Family Health, where she provides compassionate and inclusive primary care tailored to the unique needs of her patients, with a particular focus on women experiencing menopause and related health issues.

Originally from Portland, Oregon, Kimberly moved to Jackson in 2006, drawn by her love of the outdoors and skiing. When she's not at the clinic, she can often be found hiking, mountain biking, or skiing in the Tetons. She recently completed her 200-hour Vinyasa Yoga Teacher Training in 2024, further deepening her commitment to holistic health and wellness.
