

Leela Eapen Inspires Readers to Deepen Their Faith in Jesus, The King of Kings

A Call to Study God's Word and Strengthen the Soul

JESUS,
the
KING
of

LEELA EAPEN

New York City, New York Nov 21, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Books To Life Marketing proudly presents Jesus, The King of Kings by Leela Eapen, a spiritually uplifting and biblically grounded work that urges believers to study the Word of God and strengthen their personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Drawing from Scripture and divine revelation, Eapen reminds readers that Jesus is not merely a prophet—but the Son of the Most High, the Creator of all things, and the living Word who brings eternal life.

Quote from the Author

“Some religions believe that Jesus was simply a prophet, but I pray that the Lord will make it perfectly clear to you that He was the Son of the Most High, and He Himself was God, the Creator of all things (John 1:1–3, 14). Since God was sending His own Son, He expected that the people would accept His messages just as He intended. Those who chose to reject them could expect the most severe punishment.

I urge you, my readers, to please pick up your Bible and study the Word of God; the more of His words we have within us, the less room there will be for evil thoughts to get into our hearts. Practice it, for practice makes us perfect, and it will become our natural response. If we don’t study His words and apply them to our lives, how can we call ourselves Christians, followers of Jesus Christ?”

(Theme: Encouraging others to study the Word of God — to know who God is, build a personal relationship with Him through His Son Jesus Christ, and develop complete faith that prepares us spiritually for His return.)

About the Book

Just as King Belshazzar witnessed the “writing on the wall” (Daniel 5:5), author Leela Eapen recounts a divine vision where she saw a hand inscribing the words “Jesus, the King of Kings.” This moment became a spiritual turning point and the inspiration for this powerful book.

Jesus, The King of Kings emphasizes that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that proceeds from the mouth of God (Matthew 4:4). Through heartfelt reflections, Scripture study, and spiritual truths, Eapen guides readers toward a deeper connection with God, a renewed hunger for His Word, and a stronger foundation of faith.

This book is not only a testimony but also a guide for living righteously, walking in obedience, and recognizing the voice of the Lord in everyday life. It is a call to revival for every believer who desires to strengthen their spiritual journey and live in readiness for the return of Christ.

Author Biography

Leela Eapen was born in southern India, where the Apostle Thomas first preached the Gospel in AD 52, and raised in a devout Christian family. After graduating as a registered nurse from the J.J. Group of Hospitals in Bombay, she moved to New York City in 1972 and built a distinguished career in health care, earning recognition as Best Nurse Coordinating Manager of the Year at Metropolitan Hospital.

Her passion for Scripture led her to study at the New York School of the Bible, where God transformed her heart and deepened her faith. Today, Leela is a prayer warrior, prison minister, and recipient of many miracles. She resides in Georgia with her family and continues to live as a faithful servant of the Lord.

“If you feel you’re being blessed through this book, please give the glory and honor to God Almighty, because the message is from Him—Leela is merely a messenger.”
