

NorMed Introduces a First Aid Station to Keep Every Workplace Safe

NorMed unveils its all-in-one First Aid Station, delivering organized, compliant, and easily accessible medical supplies to help every workplace stay prepared, protected, and OSHA-ready.

Seattle, Washington Nov 13, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - NorMed, a trusted leader in workplace health and safety supplies, today announced the launch of its new First Aid Station, designed to make comprehensive first aid accessible, organized, and compliant in every workplace environment.

With decades of experience serving businesses across industries, NorMed developed the First Aid Station to simplify safety preparedness while meeting OSHA and ANSI standards. The station provides clearly labeled, ready-to-use supplies that help employees and safety managers respond quickly to injuries and emergencies.

Every second counts in a workplace emergency. NorMed's First Aid Station ensures that critical supplies are easy to find, easy to use, and fully stocked — helping companies protect their most valuable asset.

Key Features and Benefits:

- Comprehensive Coverage: Includes high-quality first aid essentials for treating common workplace injuries — from cuts and burns to sprains and eye irritations.
- OSHA & ANSI Compliance: Meets or exceeds the latest regulatory requirements for workplace first aid.
- Easy Access & Organization: Intuitive labeling and layout ensure quick identification of supplies during emergencies.
- Customizable Options: Available in multiple sizes and configurations to fit the specific needs of offices, warehouses, construction sites, and manufacturing facilities.
- Refill Support: NorMed's refill system helps businesses maintain compliance and readiness with minimal effort.

The First Aid Station underscores NorMed's commitment to keeping workplaces safe, compliant, and prepared for the unexpected. It's the latest addition to NorMed's comprehensive range of first aid kits, safety products, and health supplies trusted by thousands of businesses nationwide.
