

Out100 Honoree Jorge Xolalpa Unveils Multi-City 2026 Book Tour for His Breakout Memoir Ni De Aquí, Ni De Allá to 30+

Wenatchee, Washington Nov 25, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Fresh off a film festival tour with his film LOLITA and being named one of Out Magazine's OUT100 Most Influential Artists of the Year, filmmaker and author Jorge Xolalpa is embarking on an ambitious, nationwide journey. Today, Xolalpa officially announces the 2026 NI DE AQUÍ, NI DE ALLÁ BOOK TOUR, a sweeping 30-plus-city tour in partnership with the Mexican Consulate that will bring his powerful memoir directly to the communities that shaped him.

Beginning December 13, 2025 in Los Angeles, the tour will travel through major cultural hubs including San Diego, San Francisco, Portland, Chicago, Boston, New York City, Washington D.C., Atlanta, Miami, New Orleans, and will culminate in Anchorage, Alaska on July 31, 2026, marking it one of the largest independently led book tours by a Latinx author in recent memory.

Ni De Aquí, Ni De Allá: A Soul Suspended Between Two Worlds also available in Spanish Ni De Aquí, Ni De Allá: Una Alma Suspendida Entre Dos Mundos is Xolalpa's deeply personal memoir chronicling his life as a Mexican-born, Los Angeles-raised DACA recipient, his rise as a filmmaker, and his unrelenting pursuit of belonging in an America that often refused to see him. Blending cinematic storytelling with raw emotional insight, the book has been hailed as “a mirror for millions living between borders, physical, cultural, and spiritual.”

With the Consulate of Mexico supporting select tour stops, each city will feature book signings, keynote conversations, community dialogues, and select screenings of Xolalpa’s acclaimed films. The tour aims to uplift immigrant voices, build cross-border community, and celebrate the resilience of those who exist in the in-between.

“This book is my heart on paper,” says Xolalpa. “It belongs to every dreamer who ever felt invisible and still chose to rise. This tour is not just a celebration—it’s a homecoming.”

The 2026 NI DE AQUÍ, NI DE ALLÁ BOOK TOUR includes stops in:

A full schedule and ticket information will be available at www.xolalpa.com

ABOUT JORGE XOLALPA

Jorge Xolalpa is a Mexican-born, Los Angeles–raised filmmaker, author, and founder of Mighty Aphrodite Pictures and the Xolalpa Arts Academy. His awardwinning films have screened internationally, and he is recognized as an Out100 Honoree for his impact in arts, culture, and immigrant storytelling. His memoir Ni De Aquí, Ni De Allá (December 2025) marks his literary debut.

For media inquiries, interviews, or event booking, please contact:

press@mightyaphrodite.pictures

213-477-3931

Quill to Kindle

www.quilltokindle.com

Quill To Kindle

@gmail.com

+1 2137200672

frank.cooper0601@gmail.com

Source : Quill to Kindle

See on IssueWire