

Pastor/Apostle K.M. Byam-Brown, Sr. Releases New Book: “Why Race, Prejudice and Racial Discrimination?”

Lancaster, Pennsylvania Nov 20, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Author Pastor/Apostle K.M. Byam-Brown, Sr. has released a powerful new book that takes readers on a journey through faith, understanding, and honest conversation. In Why Race, Prejudice and Racial Discrimination? Brown speaks from the heart about the divisions that still exist among us—and the healing that begins when we see one another through God's eyes.

Rather than lecturing or pointing fingers, K.M invites readers to sit down, take a breath, and listen—to each other, and to God's message of unity. The book explores hard truths, but always with compassion and grace. Through personal reflection, scripture, and open-hearted storytelling, Brown shares how faith can guide us toward forgiveness, empathy, and love across every boundary that divides us. "This book was written out of prayer and pain," K.M explains. "I wanted to have an honest conversation about race and prejudice, not from a political point of view, but from a place of faith—because healing starts when we let God change our hearts first."

About the Book

Why Race, Prejudice and Racial Discrimination? is more than a social commentary—it's a call to action wrapped in faith and compassion. Pastor/Apostle K.M. Byam-Brown, Sr. brings forward real, relatable experiences and combines them with spiritual wisdom to create a book that feels both timely and timeless. Each chapter challenges readers to confront bias and judgment, not with guilt, but with grace. The book reminds us that faith is not just a belief—it's a practice of love, patience, and humility in everyday life. Whether you're wrestling with how to talk about race, or simply seeking hope in a world that often feels divided, this book offers perspective, peace, and purpose.
