

Persano announces new single “Don’t Let the Devil In” – A Song of Light and Humanity

With his new German-language single, Persano delivers a powerful message of hope, faith, and the strength of good – music that inspires hearts and brings light to dark times.

Puttlingen, Saarland Nov 4, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - With his upcoming German-language single “Lass den Teufel nicht herein” (“Don’t Let the Devil In”), international artist Persano, known as The Voice with a Soul, sends out a heartfelt message of hope, faith, and humanity. The song encourages listeners to keep light in their hearts — and not to let darkness take over.

Following the worldwide success of “Peace for All” and “Faith in Me”, Persano continues his musical journey with a deeply emotional track that unites soulful melodies with an uplifting message. Produced by Michael Grant, the song blends the spirit of classic soul with contemporary pop production, reflecting Persano’s signature motto:

“Music with Heart, Soul, and a Message.”

“In difficult times, music can be a light that reminds us of what truly matters – love, faith, and humanity,” says Persano. “That’s what this song is all about.”

The single is part of the “Faith & Light Series – Spring 2026”, a musical trilogy exploring faith, courage, and hope in an increasingly divided world. With this release, Persano once again proves that authentic music with meaning can cross all borders and languages.
