

Randall Parker, LCSW, CADC: A Compassionate Leader in Behavioral Health and Substance Abuse Counseling

Empowering Individuals and Families While Championing Recovery and Mental Health in Idaho Falls

Idaho Falls, Idaho Nov 19, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Randall Parker, LCSW, CADC, is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor at Stewards of Recovery, LLC in Idaho Falls, Idaho. With a deep commitment to behavioral health and substance abuse treatment, Randall has established himself as a leading figure in the individual and family services sector, offering a wealth of experience and a compassionate, client-centered approach.

Randall earned both his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Social Work degrees from Idaho State University, where he showcased his leadership skills as Vice President of the Student Social Work and Sociology Association. His academic foundation laid the groundwork for a successful career dedicated to improving the lives of individuals and families facing mental health and substance abuse challenges.

Throughout his career, Randall has held several pivotal roles that highlight his expertise in social work and mental health. As an LMSW Counselor and Licensed Mental Health Counselor at Stewards of Recovery, he has provided vital services that focus on trauma-informed care, crisis intervention, and long-term recovery support. He is also skilled in nonprofit organizations, volunteer management, and therapeutic support, demonstrating a versatile ability to serve clients and communities beyond traditional clinical settings. His previous experience as a Social Worker at PATH and as a Substance Abuse Counselor Intern at D7 Treatment has further enriched his understanding of the complexities surrounding mental health issues and substance use disorders.

Randall is certified through the Idaho Board of Alcohol and Drug Counselor Certification (Credential ID 11672) and previously obtained his ISAS certification from IBADCC, underscoring his commitment to professional excellence and ongoing education in his field. As an active member of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), he stays connected with the latest developments and best practices in social work.

Above all, Randall Parker is dedicated to creating a safe and supportive environment for his clients. He believes in the power of resilience and strives to empower individuals to explore their thoughts, build coping strategies, and achieve their personal goals. His compassionate approach, combined with his extensive knowledge and experience, makes him a valuable asset to the Stewards of Recovery team and the community at large.
