Each artist will receive a detailed analytical report at the end of the campaign to make sure they can get critical insights from the campaign, which can be utilized later.

Similarly, there is the Spotify Promotion Pack, which helps to promote 2 songs through 90+ curated playlists and offers 7k to 7.5k listeners. This package also includes a paid press release distribution, and this content marketing approach continues with the rest of the packages, too. The Spotify Marketing Pro Pack allows artists to promote a total of three songs together through 120+ curated playlists and offers up to 10,000-11,000 listeners. Other than the Press release, artists will also get a Music Blog along with it.
