Rich Noto Realtor - Home Inspector

Review ★★★★★ Andre M. Buyer

"I wholeheartedly recommend Rich Noto to anyone in search of a realtor who truly exceeds the typical expectations of real estate services. In an era where everything is accessible online, I didn't just need a standard agent; I needed someone with Rich's expertise. Throughout my home buying process, Rich truly set himself apart from other realtors. It's not typical for real estate agents to attend inspections, let alone actively engage in them, but Rich did both! They don't call him the 'not-so-nice' realtor for nothing—his relentless pursuit to pinpoint crucial issues that both inspectors initially missed was impressive. His meticulous attention to detail ensured these important concerns were added to the inspection reports due to his proactive efforts. Moreover, Rich went the extra mile by revisiting the property to verify that all reported issues had been properly resolved. Upon discovering that the problems persisted, his relentless follow-up applied necessary pressure on the home builder to meet standards and resolve all issues. Rich's background in inspection and experience with construction managers truly came in handy. Every defect Rich identified not only saved me money but also spared me future stress over issues caught early. Rich is the advocate every home buyer deserves!"

Haines City, Florida Nov 27, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Central Florida Realtor and licensed Home Inspector Rich Noto is elevating the new-construction home buying experience by providing hands-on support and quality control monitoring throughout the entire build. With extensive experience filming community tours, model home walkthroughs, and construction progress, Rich continues to be a leading resource for buyers seeking confidence, transparency, and expert representation during a new build.

Rich's enhanced service focuses on what today's buyers need most:

- Clear communication with builder staff and site agents
- Consistent construction monitoring with detailed photo and video updates
- Quality control oversight during the build, helping buyers stay aware of progress and potential concerns
- Guidance on upgrades, lot selection, and expectations throughout the building timeline
- Professional insight from both a Realtor and Home Inspector perspective

Whether local or purchasing from out of state, buyers benefit from Rich's watchful eye and proactive communication—helping them stay informed, protected, and confident from contract to closing.

"New construction can be overwhelming for buyers—especially when they can't be on-site regularly," Rich says. "My mission is to provide ongoing updates, quality control awareness, and support so buyers always know exactly what's happening during their build."

Rich serves Central Florida communities, including St. Cloud, Clermont, Winter Garden, Groveland, Davenport, Parrish, and many surrounding areas. He continues to expand his library of video tours and community coverage to help buyers make informed decisions before visiting in person.
