

Rising AI Music Creator PULSE 3 Redefines Fusion with Hindi, Arabic, and Tamil Sounds

Emerging AI music creator PULSE 3 combines cross-cultural melodies and creative visuals to deliver a unique digital music experience.

Delhi, India Nov 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - PULSE 3, an innovative AI music creator based in Oman, has launched a YouTube channel dedicated to producing original AI-generated music mixes blending Hindi, Arabic, and Tamil influences for audiences in India and worldwide. Using advanced AI tools like Suno, the channel creates immersive fusion tracks paired with visually creative AI music videos.

Despite being a new channel, PULSE 3 is quickly building a reputation for its unique approach to music, merging global sounds in ways rarely seen in digital music today. Each track combines traditional rhythms with modern AI-generated melodies, offering audiences a fresh and engaging listening experience.

“AI technology gives me the freedom to explore sounds from different cultures and create something entirely new,” said PULSE 3. “I want to bring listeners a fusion of music and visuals that they haven’t heard before.”

The channel’s AI-driven videos are crafted to match the style and emotion of each track, creating a fully immersive musical experience. By combining innovative music production with cinematic AI visuals, PULSE 3 is redefining what independent creators can do in the digital music space.
