

Rising Artist emi Releases First Three-Track Remix EP in Collaboration with London Producer MNEEMO

Featuring new reimagined versions of “Metamorphosis,” “One of Them,” and “Desperate Eyes.”

London, England Dec 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Breakout artist emi announces the upcoming release of a three-track remix EP created in collaboration with London-based producer MNEEMO, set for December 12, 2025. This marks the first time emi presents a full multi-track project reimagined by a single producer.

The EP features new reinterpretations of three of her most recognised songs: “Metamorphosis,” “One of Them,” and “Desperate Eyes.” Known for her distinctive vocal tone, introspective writing, and visually driven aesthetic, emi has built a dedicated audience across Europe and beyond. The collaboration introduces a new sonic dimension to her catalogue, merging her emotional alt-pop atmosphere with MNEEMO’s modern electronic production and club-infused sound.

The project began during preparation for a live performance in London, where MNEEMO was invited to create special arrangements for emi. Their creative chemistry led to the development of a full remix EP, bridging two artistic perspectives and expanding the emotional space of the original songs.

The remix EP will be available on all major streaming platforms starting December 12.
