Sydney, New South Wales Nov 20, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Sean Gregory, former Chief Risk Officer at PwC Australia and a senior executive with more than 30 years of experience across finance, professional services, health, and technology, is recognized as a trusted advisor for boards, CEOs, and high-growth organisations seeking expertise in governance, risk, and strategic advisory.

Gregory's extensive career combines deep executive experience, advisory leadership, and boardroom insight. He has consistently helped organisations navigate complex challenges, from enterprise risk management and regulatory compliance to capital strategy, mergers, acquisitions, and operational transformation.

Executive Leadership and Advisory Experience

During his tenure at PwC Australia, Sean held multiple senior leadership roles, culminating in his role as Chief Risk Officer. In this capacity, he oversaw enterprise-wide risk frameworks, strengthened governance processes, led regulatory engagement, and supported the execution of high-impact strategic initiatives. His leadership contributed to stronger operational resilience and more informed decision-making across the firm.

Beyond PwC, Gregory has applied his expertise across multiple sectors, particularly in high-growth and innovation-focused businesses. His advisory and board roles include:

- Chairman of the Advisory Board – Vitadrops, a rapidly expanding global wellness brand, where he guides strategic planning, governance, and commercial growth initiatives

- Strategic Advisor – VentureCrowd, helping founders in finance, health, and technology sectors structure capital, manage risk, and execute successful growth strategies

- Advisor – CardioNexus, a cardiology data and technology company driving innovation in healthcare delivery

- Treasurer & Board Member – Australian British Business Chamber, collaborating with senior business and government leaders to promote trade, investment, and innovation between Australia and the UK

Through these roles, Sean Gregory brings a unique combination of strategic oversight, risk management, and operational insight, helping organisations make informed decisions that drive long-term growth and resilience.

Thought Leadership and Expertise

Sean Gregory is recognized for his thought leadership in governance, risk management, and corporate strategy. He is a Fellow of Chartered Accountants Australia & New Zealand (CA ANZ) and has completed executive education at MIT.

Over his career, he has helped leaders:

- Implement robust governance frameworks aligned with organisational strategy

- Navigate regulatory, operational, and financial risk in complex environments
- Make informed strategic decisions in capital, M&A, and corporate restructuring
- Develop leadership and risk awareness at board and executive levels

Gregory's approach blends analytical rigor with practical business insight, helping CEOs, boards, and senior executives transform challenges into strategic opportunities.
